

Library News

4.3.2016
Ausgabe 3

RECENT ACQUISITIONS

Until our library is fully catalogued on the online public access catalogue of the University of Hamburg, recent acquisitions will get listed on Library Thing. Tabs: All collections/MCAS New acquisitions/IJPR New acquisitions

DATABASES

Bar Illan University Responsa (“Global Jewish Database”) is now available at MCAS for single concurrent use. The database can be used on the library PC in the office (room 5020) until we set up a library PC in the big seminar room.

Loeb Classical Library via database info system DBIS. Online access to more than 520 titles has been purchased for the University of Hamburg, through the library fund of the Faculty of Humanities. All hardcopies will become available at the Philosophy library, Phil-Turm, 10th floor.

Otsar ha-Hokhmah via database info system DBIS. A record has been added and is currently awaiting enhancement.

YOUR LITERATURE IS NOT FOUND IN HAMBURG ?

Step 1 Interlibrary Loan Service (Fernleihe) can be accessed at the Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek. Free loan coupons will soon be available in the office.

Step 2 For quick access to books and articles found in libraries in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland ⇒ Subito priority service

HEBREW MANUSCRIPTS

New manuscript catalogue: „A descriptive catalogue of the Hebrew manuscripts of Corpus Christi College, Oxford“, D.S. Brewer (UK), 2015, ISBN 9781843843894

JEWISH THOUGHT IN THE RENAISSANCE

Ongoing exhibition: „The Rabbi and the English scholar—An Exhibition of Jewish Thought in Renaissance Cambridge“, Queen’s College Old Library, Cambridge